

WITH GRATITUDE!

Thank you to the generous supporters who made the 2018 Educational Excellence Fund a success! View a list of their names on our online Donor Honor Roll. With your participation, IPSF can continue to provide crucial funding to Irvine schools for classroom support, music, science, and mental health & wellness. Not on the list? It's not too late! Make a gift by January 31 to add your name to the final 2018 Honor Roll.

<https://ipsf.net/about/supporters/#donor-honor-roll>

REGISTER FOR ENRICHMENT DAY!

Registration for Enrichment Day is now open! On Monday, February 11, IUSD students in grades 2-8 are invited to join IPSF for a fun-filled day of engaging and exciting classes in subjects including video game development, cooking, movie making, coding, break dancing, art, and much more! Register today, as classes will fill up fast! Deadline to register is Monday, February 4.

<https://portal.ipsfacademy.org/index.php?pro=10>

TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS

Come out and support your school's team at the Winter Bowl Flag Football Tournament on Saturday, January 26 at the Orange County Great Park. The Winter Bowl is the second of three tournaments in Irvine Youth Sports Tournament of Champions benefitting IPSF. Don't forget to sign up for the last tournament in the series, Hoops Classic, by February 8. The schools with the most points at the end of the year will be awarded the coveted Champions Cup to display at their school.

<https://ocyouthsports.org/irvine/tournaments/hoops-classic/>

BECOME A COX SCHOLAR

Our partners at Cox Charities is accepting applications for the Cox Scholars program. Scholarships are available to graduating seniors who live in our South Orange County, are enrolling to a full-time two or four year university within the U.S., and have a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. The average scholarship ranges from $2,500 to $5,000, Cox will be awarding $35,000 total. Applications are due on February 1.

<https://www.coxcharitiesca.org/cox-scholars>

SOUTHWEST FAMILY TOUR

IPSF has teamed up with See America Travel for the Spring Break Family Tours! Departing from Irvine in a deluxe motor coach, families will explore the Southwestern United States from April 1- April 6. Participants will learn about nature, geology, animals, history, and interesting anecdotes regarding the places they will be exploring! Reserve your space today online. Early bird discount ends on February 17.

<https://seeamericatraveltours.com/>

For all the latest IPSF News & Events, visit www.ipsf.net.